

Row the Erne connects people on the water with its Menapian currach, promoting wellness and fun.

Last updated	March 2023
--------------	------------

Row the Erne Volunteer Agreement

Row the Erne (hereafter referred to as RtE) appreciates your commitment to the club and will do the best it can to make your volunteer experience with the Club enjoyable and rewarding. To make sure you have the best possible experience the Club has created this agreement which sets out its commitment to you and what it hopes you can contribute.

Row the Erne is committed to:

- Giving you a great experience.
- Being responsive to your requirements.
- Providing you with an induction.
- Providing support throughout your volunteer experience.
- Explaining the standards, the Club expects to be adhered to and to encourage and support you to achieve and maintain them.
- Providing a named person who will be your point of contact whilst volunteering. This is someone who will discuss your volunteering and any achievements and issues arising on a regular basis.
- Doing its best to help you develop your volunteering role with it.
- Being flexible in relation to your volunteering hours, recognising your need for other commitments.
- Honouring the time commitment, you have agreed to give the Club and not to expect more from you unless offered and agreed.
- Providing training required to undertake the role.
- Reimbursing agreed out-of-pocket expenses following procedures set out in the Club's Expenses Policy. Row the Erne does not pay travel expenses.
- Providing adequate training and ensuring you know what to do to stay safe, in accordance with the Club's Health and Safety Policy.
- Providing adequate insurance to cover for volunteers whilst undertaking volunteering approved and authorised by the Club.
- Ensuring that all volunteers are treated fairly and in accordance with the Club's Equity Policy.
- Trying to resolve fairly any issues or difficulties you may have whilst you volunteer with the Club before they become problems. In the event of an unresolved problem, to offer an opportunity to discuss the issue in accordance with the relevant policies.
- Follow up on any feedback or questions you may have regarding your involvement as a volunteer.

Row the Erne connects people on the water with its Menapian currach, promoting wellness and fun.

I agree to volunteer with Row the Erne and am committed to the following:

- Familiarise myself with role and perform it to the best of my ability;
- Working as agreed in my volunteer role description;
- Following the organisation's policies and procedures;
- Ask if I'm not sure about what to do to stay safe whilst volunteering;
- Maintaining the confidential information of the organisation;
- Meeting time and other commitments as agreed but when unable to do so to give reasonable notice so that other arrangements can be made;
- Providing references and to agree to checks under the Protection of Vulnerable Groups (PVG) scheme, as required;
- Return any loaned equipment when ending my volunteering.